

Fourth seminar for the Continental, Alpine, Pannonian, Steppic and Black Sea regions

Ministry of the Environment
of the Czech Republic

Natura 2000 Biogeographical Process

Photograph: Zdeněk Zálíš

2nd Continental Seminar—Strasbourg, France

Natura 2000 Biogeographical Process

16-18 October 2018, Strasbourg, France
126 participants from 18 countries, including
NGOs + COM + organizers

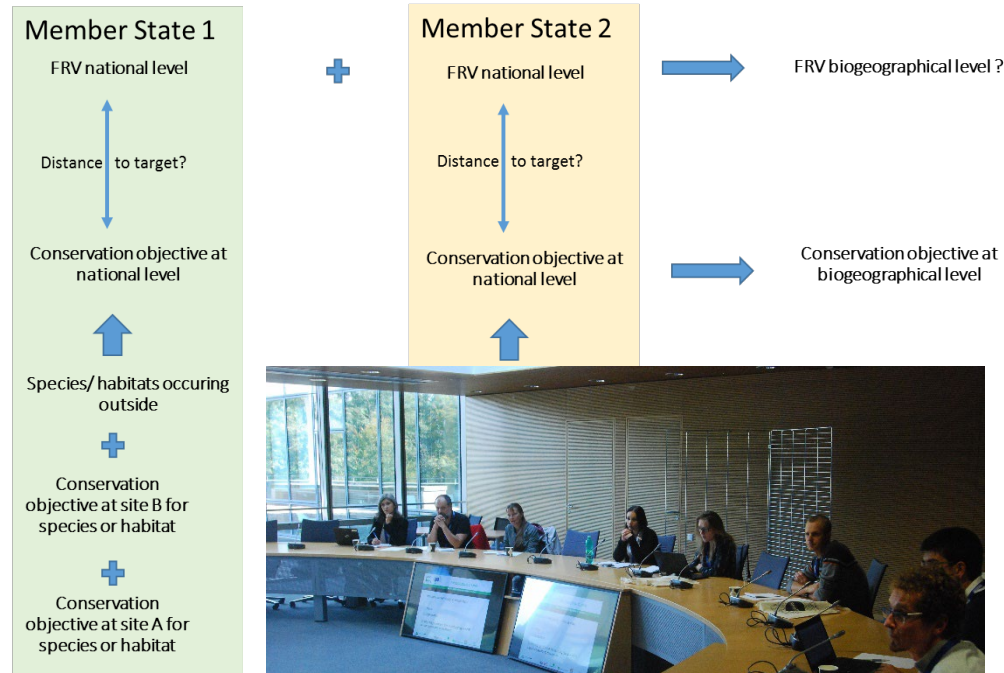

Theme 1

Natura 2000 Biogeographical Process

Improving coherence between (a) site-level conservation objectives and (b) biogeographical level conservation targets and priorities

Theme 2

Natura 2000 Biogeographical Process

Dealing with problems arising from differences between Member States in defining certain habitat types

Theme 3

Natura 2000 Biogeographical Process

Integrated management: increasing the involvement of local land managers through integrated site management

Theme 4

Natura 2000 Biogeog

Selecting biogeographical level conservation priorities and measures

Knowledge market

Natura 2000 Biogeographical Process

16 projects, 10 Member States

Excursions

Natura 2000 Biogeographical Process

- Three excursions:
 - Forests
 - Grasslands
 - Rivers

Fourth seminar for the Continental, Alpine, Pannonian, Steppic and Black Sea regions

Ministry of the Environment
of the Czech Republic

Natura 2000 Biogeographical Process

Thank you!

